“Sharing brings Joy, to us, to others, to God.” This is the theme for this year’s Week of Compassion special offering. Week of Compassion is the name the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) use as our part of the greater program called “One Great Hour of Sharing” used by other denominations, (AME Zion, American Baptist, Church of the Brethren, Cumberland Presbyterian, Presbyterian USA, Reformed Church in America, and the United Church of Christ) as their designation for a special offering to aid those who experience disasters worldwide.

Week of Compassion has responded to crisis all over the globe, from major natural disasters to the disasters created by war and political strife. Many of you are familiar with special efforts our congregation made specifically for global disasters such as Hurricane Katrina, the Tsunami in SE Asia, Haiti’s earthquake and many others. But there are smaller less globally newsworthy events that need the help of Week of Compassion. Week of Compassion has been present to assist people affected by droughts, famines, tornados, floods, earthquakes, hurricanes, typhoons, etc, etc. Anytime a disaster has struck, Week of Compassion assesses the needs and works with our churches to assist those in need.

Naturally, the disasters keep coming whether there are any funds available, therefore, even though our focus on this offering is in February, we can contribute to the work of the Week of Compassion at any time of the year. If you would like to see where Week of Compassion has gone and what they have done, go to www.weekofcompassion.org.

An old Jewish proverb says that when you save the life of one person, you save all of humanity.

No single person in the world is outside the love of God. Help those who help others around the world.

It is easy to become discouraged because disaster work can be so slow and seems to take forever. Work still needs to be done on the Gulf Coast to repair the damage from Katrina. A year has passed since the earthquake in Haiti and people still live in tent cities, and suffer from a hurricane and cholera epidemic. Floods have occurred in Australia, winter storms have damaged homes in the US and Europe, and it is only mid January (as I write this). We do not have to fix all the problems that occur but we do have to do our part. There is joy in knowing that we do good by helping others. Help share the Joy around the world.

Shalom, Darrell

HEIFER INTERNATIONAL PROJECT

Thank you to all who helped make our first effort supporting Heifer International this Christmas. We raised $1455 which translates to 2 heifers, 2 llamas, honey bees, tree seedlings, and 3 rabbits. Unfortunately there was no option for a partridge in a pear tree, but we did pretty well for our first time. We have given a gift that will continue to help families and villages for years to come.

YOUTH-A-PALOOZA

On January 7-9, ten youth and two adults represented our church at the annual GA Disciples Youth-a-palooza at Epworth-by-the-Sea on St. Simon Island, GA. This year’s theme was “Turn It Up—Broadcast Your Faith.” Rev. Danny Gulden, from Carmel Christian Church, Carmel, IN, was the keynoter for the CYF, and Rev. Rob Morris, from Ridgela Christian Church, Forth Worth, TX (go Horned Frogs), keynoted for the Chi Rho. If you visit www.gadisciples.org, you can find photos and a slide show of the event. Our youth are well represented in the pictures. Everyone had a great time and is already talking about next year. Thanks to all who helped support the effort to raise money for the Youth-a-palooza.

With Heartfelt Thanks...

To all of you who made Christmas so special for our families at the Safe House, I want to say THANK YOU from the deepest part of my heart. When we returned to work this morning, all we could hear were "thank you's". I was told that our oldest child just sat and looked at all of his presents in awe. This was a Christmas these families will never forget and YOU made this awesome memory for them. BECAUSE OF YOU 22 children and 8 adults were adopted for 2010 Christmas. May God Bless Each and Everyone of you!

Definition of Love

Love is not practical. It does not measure
What it sends forth, as though a boundless treasure
Were it's to share. It knows no special season
And makes its gifts for no particular reason
Except that it is love. This is sufficient,
Love is all-knowing, and it is proficient
At finding hidden needs and secret sorrows
And turning cloud banks into bright tomorrows,
Love does not wait for thank you or for praises,
It has no need for these, or flowery phrases,
Love searches out the lonely one, the friendless,
And give its all, because love's stores are endless.

LAUGH OF THE DAY

Get Out of the Car!

(This is supposedly a true account recorded in the Police Log of Sarasota, Florida)

An elderly Florida lady did her shopping and, upon returning to her car, found four males in the act of leaving with her vehicle.

She dropped her shopping bags and drew her handgun, proceeding to scream at the top of her lungs, "I have a gun, and I know how to use it! Get out of the car!"

The four men didn't wait for a second threat. They got out and ran like mad.

The lady, somewhat shaken, then proceeded to load her shopping bags into the back of the car and got into the driver's seat. She was so shaken that she could not get her key into the ignition.

She tried and tried, and then she realized why. It was for the same reason she had wondered why there was a football, a Frisbee and two 12-packs of beer in the front seat.

A few minutes later, she found her own car parked four or five spaces farther down.

She loaded her bags into the car and drove to the police station to report her mistake.

The sergeant to whom she told the story couldn't stop laughing.

He pointed to the other end of the counter, where four pale men were reporting a car jacking by an elderly woman described as white, less than five feet tall, glasses, curly white hair, and carrying a large handgun.

No charges were filed.

Moral of the story? If you're going to have a senior moment, make it memorable.

Happy Valentine's Day!
